

A message from Maria Botham, President and CEO of Hair Fairies

From the moment you enter a Hair Fairies salon or purchase our all natural products you will see the Hair Fairies Difference. At Hair Fairies, we know that providing that utmost care is important to the decades of families we have served.

For decades, we've dedicated ourselves to understanding head lice and the problems it can pose. Each situation, individual and family is different. At Hair Fairies we take that into consideration when treating you or when purchasing our products. We use that knowledge to provide safe, clinically proven mild, and natural products.

But we don't stop there. Our techniques are unique and our highly trained technicians are warm and friendly. That's why families, healthcare professionals and schools around the country have trusted the Hair Fairies Brand to care for their head lice problem. It's a responsibility we take seriously as we continue to apply our knowledge, techniques and research to bring you safe, natural and innovative products that live up to our promise. We will deal with your head lice problem once and for all!

We are the head lice helpers...and committed to serving your needs and taking your experience to another level. Please browse our website, and call or visit one of our salons to find out more information. If you get infected with head lice we are the "Safe Solution for Frantic Families"™!
